

For millions of
consumers worldwide,
we're the best-kept secret
in the business.

As a full-service contract manufacturer, we've been quietly exceeding customer expectations for more than 65 years. But our passion for your brand runs deeper than that. We deliver the quality control that protects your brand equity, the flexibility and supply chain management you need to respond to your demanding customers, and industry-leading innovation resources that keep your brand at the top of its category. To see just how powerful of a secret weapon we can be, call 262.268.4747 or e-mail us at contractfiller@kleentest.com.
